BREAKING MY SILENCE SURVIVING AND HEALING MYSELF AFTER YEARS OF SECRECY, SHAME, AND ABUSE BY MAYA HOPE KITWANA PDF

In this memoir, Maya Hope Kitwana exposes her truth; showing from the inside out what was required for her to survive her childhood nightmares. These nightmares no longer torment Maya Hope Kitwana. Her story provides a lighthouse for others who have suffered abuse. A way out to discover love. A strong word of caution-the material shared isn't for everyone. Maya's story is not just a recap of unflinching secrets. This is a graphic, yet fearless look at a woman's journey through rape, incest, and abandonment-and her movement toward hope, healing, intimacy, and love. Maya charts a course that is painful and powerful. This work is about secrets and rage. It is about honesty and revenge. Despair. Faith. Kindness. Over thirty years of silence is too long.

From Despair to Hope

By Mary Hosmar

In this memoir, Maya Hope Kitwana exposes the reader to a world many have not experienced and were probably unaware even existed. For thirty years Maya carried around secrets of childhood and adolescent secrets no person should have to endure. Ms Kitwana's journey from secrecy to forgiveness to love makes compelling reading.

Ms Kitwana's purpose for writing this story was, first of all, to free herself from the past and if in doing so, one other person is helped, encouraged and cheered on, so much the better.

This book does not carry with it the hallmarks of great writing. At times the story time-line can be confusing and the writing does not always flow smoothly, but this only serves to accentuates the raw emotions of the story. One does not think clearly when forced into situations beyond one's control.

This is a disturbing read and not for the faint of heart. But for those who have found themselves in similar situations, it is a beacon of hope.

By Terri Scott

This is an empowering story about overcoming abuse. This memoir is bravely written, and gives light on such a uncomfortable topic. I commend this author for breaking her silence.
