Essential Ditko priced right

By Jacktavish

Generally I prefer buying comics over collections--because the art, coloring, printing look much better to me. But in the case of early to mid-60's comics, unless you're a millionaire, the Masterworks series is the way to go. (How pathetic that DC collections are in B&W!) Also, the early appearances of Doctor Strange are 5 pages long, so why waste big $$ on Strange Tales 110, 111 & 115 for such little Ditko & a lot of bad Thing/Torch stories? (Once in a blue moon, Kirby or Wood are involved, but usually you get bad art/bad scripts.)

Anyway, this collection gives you all the early strips where Doctor Strange looks much older (50-55) & sinister. Once the title became relatively popular, they made him 40-ish and more handsome. Along with all his stories up to the climax of his epic battle against Mordo & Dormammu, you get every Strange Tales cover (most are classic Kirby), & you get the Spider-Man annual by Ditko, w/ Spidey & the Doctor teaming up. If you are a fan of Stan Lee, Steve Ditko, early Marvel, or psychedelic art this is a must-have. If you are not, I weep a thousand tears for you... May the Hoary Hordes of Hoggoth never darken your sanctum sanctorum's door. Taman Shud.

Note: This book is still available at list price, $24.95 or discount in many comic stores across America. DO NOT BUY for the the rip-off $75 - $90 prices currently listed here !!!

Ground breaking and still an original.

By Grant

This edition of Marvel Masterworks featuring Dr. Strange is amazing still to this day. Ditko creates a magical, surreal, awe inspiring world for Dr. Strange to inhabit. His use of abstract shapes and color are still dazzeling to this day. A wonderfully fun read, with still amazingly original looking characters like The Dread Dormamu and Nightmare are still incredible to look at. While Ditko may not have been as prolific as King Kirby, his gift for telling a story through the movement of the human form and through the emotion of the characters facial expressions is still unmatched to this day. Seek this one out at all cost, it will hold your attention from first page to last. This is a must have whether you're a Ditko fan or not. Seek this one out, it doesnt dissappoint.

The best of Ditko & Lee...!!

By DJ Joe Sixpack

These early adventures of Doctor Strange are perhaps the best work done by the team of Steve Ditko and Stan Lee, as well as the best stories in the Dr. Strange saga. There was creative fervor and passion for the work, wild creativity, beautiful artwork and a fun, hokey old-fashioned feel as well. As a bridge between the corny genre work of the 1950s (horror, sci-fi, etc.) and the modern Marvel aesthetic, these stories are real gems. They're certainly my favorites, and they stand the test of time in ways that other Silver Age comics do not. Make Mine Marvel! (ReadThatAgain book reviews)
